

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL NONPROFIT FOR ADULTS WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES TO HOST A CARNIVAL OPEN TO THE COMMUNITY

AUSTIN, TX – Oct. 10, 2015- A Local non-profit for adults with developmental disabilities will host a carnival open to the public and children of all ages. There will be games, face painting and magic by Sunshine the Clown, music, dancing, raffle prizes, carnival food & drinks, a cake walk, a jumpy house, an Austin fire truck, henna tattoos, and fun for the whole family.

The goal of the carnival event is to give back to the community, raise awareness about this underserved population and help Harmony continue on its mission of enriching the lives of adults with developmental disabilities thorough art, music and community.

The carnival will be on Saturday, Oct. 10, 2015 from 2:00 – 7:00 p.m. at The Austin Harmony Project located at 1806 W. Stassney Ln, Austin, TX 78745. Parking is next door at ACC.

For those who are not able to attend and would like to make a secure donation to Harmony, please visit: <http://www.theaustinharmonyproject.org>

ABOUT THE AUSTIN HARMONY PROJECT: Harmony is 501(c)(3) nonprofit. "Harmony is the real deal, a nonprofit that brings joy, meaning and social connections to adults with developmental disabilities. The clients are showered with opportunities to express themselves through music, art and other creative endeavors, and their work adds beauty to the lives of others. These adults, who otherwise might be isolated, thrive in the Harmony environment."
